

The essentials of LawTrove

Accessing your textbooks

You and your students need to be logged in to your university network to gain access to LawTrove. Use the 'Sign in via your institution' option in the left-hand box on the homepage and follow the instructions.

Linking to reading

Use DOI links to direct your students to specific content for their studying on your module. DOI links are available at book and chapter level on LawTrove.

Kidner's Casebook on Torts (15th edn)

6. Special duty problems: economic loss

Kirsty Horsey and Erika Rackley

<https://doi.org/10.1093/he/9780198830887.003.0006>

Published in print: 17 July 2019 | Published online: September 2019

<https://doi.org/10.1093/he/9780198830887.001.0001>

ISBN: 9780198830887

Publisher: Oxford University Press

Personal Profiles

In order to get the most out of LawTrove, students will need to create a Personal Profile. This is done using the 'Create' button in the top right-hand corner of the homepage. Setting up a Personal Profile allows users to highlight and annotate text, bookmark important passages, and save searches.

Study tools

There are plenty of additional study and testing resources available via LawTrove. The 'Related Links' box at the end of each chapter links to our free-to-use supporting resources where students can test their understanding with multiple choice questions and flashcards, as well as find updates to content and advice on tackling problem questions.

The 'Related Books' box, also found at the end of each chapter, links to Essential Cases - content exclusive to LawTrove and ideal for revision and consolidation for key cases.

Related Books
View the Essential Cases in tort law

Related Links
Visit the online resources for this title
Test yourself: Multiple choice questions with instant feedback

Find This Title
In the OUP print catalogue

Revision resources

LawTrove includes access to all our Concentrate revision and study guides, and Concentrate Q&A guides. Ideal to help students consolidate their knowledge and prepare for exams and coursework. Find them under the 'Study & Revision' option when you search by 'Subject' on the LawTrove homepage.

Key skills

LawTrove has coverage of all the law subjects we publish in, as well as some helpful skills titles to help students brush up on their understanding and exam or essay writing skills.

Finch & Fafinski
Legal Skills

Herring
Legal Ethics

Help & contact

For more advice on using LawTrove please refer to our Customer Service pages on the LawTrove website. Here you will find our suite of materials to help get you started using the platform, including tutorial videos and information on training webinars run by OUP.

If you have any further queries, please contact your campus representative.