

Online Resources

Look out for the 'Related Links' button at the end of the chapter when you have a book open. This will take you to revision materials for that text, which include multiple choice questions, flashcards, and advice on tackling problem questions.

Revision Resources

Law Trove includes access to all of our Concentrate revision and study guides, and Concentrate Q&A guides. Packed with essential information, key cases, revision tips, exam Q&As, and more, the Concentrate series are ideal to help you prepare for exams. Find the titles by selecting the 'Study & Revision' option in the Subject drop-down.

Key Titles

Law Trove has coverage of a wide range of law subjects, as well as some helpful skills titles to help you brush up on your understanding in key subject areas and develop your exam skills. Key titles that you may find helpful are The Successful Law Student and Legal Skills.

Explore The Successful Law Student

Explore Legal Skills

Referencing texts

Preparing for an essay or open-book exam? Make sure you know how to use Law Trove's citation tool to save you time during your assessment, so you can quickly and correctly reference your sources.

Watch the Generating Citations tutorial video

Further Reading

Books on Law Trove include a Further Reading List at the end of each chapter. Click the 'Find this resource' button next to a title in the list to go to the source material. Use these links to develop your understanding and help you build arguments for essays and open-book exam questions.

