10. The duties of trustees: with special reference to investment

Chapter: 10. The duties of trustees: with special reference to investment

Author(s): Richard Clements and Ademola Abass

DOI: 10.1093/he/9780198787549.003.0010

Titles in the Complete series combine extracts from a wide range of primary materials with clear explanatory text to provide readers with a complete introductory resource. Trustees have a duty to invest the trust funds to provide an income for the beneficiaries and to maintain or, indeed, increase the value of the trust. This chapter discusses the meaning of investment; the Trustee Act 2000; the duty of reasonable care and skill; investment advice and selection; the acquisition of land; the liability of trustees; exclusion of liability, ethical investment; delegation of the investment function to agents; and information for and the giving of reasons to the beneficiaries.

Access to the complete content on Law Trove requires a subscription or purchase. Public users are able to search the site and view the abstracts and keywords for each book and chapter without a subscription.
10. The duties of trustees: with special reference to investment

Please subscribe or login to access full text content.

If you have purchased a print title that contains an access code, please see the information provided with the code or instructions printed within the title for information about how to register your code.

For questions on access or troubleshooting, please check our FAQs, and if you can't find the answer there, please contact us.