14. Co-ownership and Third Parties: Applications for Sale

All books in this flagship series contain carefully selected substantial extracts from key cases, legislation, and academic debate, providing able students with a stand-alone resource. This chapter considers applications for sale of land held on trust, which are brought by third parties; typically creditors and trustees in bankruptcy of a beneficiary. The chapter explores the different legislation and rules that apply depending on whether the application is made by a creditor or a trustee in bankruptcy.
