The Concentrate Questions and Answers series offers the best preparation for tackling exam questions and coursework. Each book includes typical questions, suggested answers with commentary, illustrative diagrams, guidance on how to develop your answer, suggestions for further reading, and advice on exams and coursework.

This chapter discusses the company's constitution, which can be a popular area for examination questions. The chapter focuses on the company's articles of association, considering in particular alteration of the articles and the legal effect of the articles (the 'statutory contract'). The chapter also considers shareholder agreements, which are often used as a supplement to the company's constitution.
3. The Corporate Constitution

Access to the complete content on Law Trove requires a subscription or purchase. Public users are able to search the site and view the abstracts and keywords for each book and chapter without a subscription.

Please subscribe or login to access full text content.

If you have purchased a print title that contains an access code, please see the information provided with the code or instructions printed within the title for information about how to register your code.

For questions on access or troubleshooting, please check our FAQs, and if you can't find the answer there, please contact us.