16. Rectification of the Register of Title

Titles in the Complete series combine extracts from a wide range of primary materials with clear explanatory text to provide readers with a complete introductory resource. This chapter discusses the rectification of the register (other than adverse possession); the situations where rectification of the register may be appropriate (‘double conveyancing’, possible negligent mistakes, registration obtained through fraud and/or forgery); rectification against a registered proprietor in possession; rectification where it would be unjust not to rectify; the effect of rectification on priorities under Land Registration Act 2002; and indemnity (indemnity for a registered proprietor where rectification is granted and indemnity for a person who is refused rectification).
