15. Decision-Making

This chapter explains how an LLP makes decisions, identifying the sorts of decisions that require unanimity and the sorts of decisions that can be decided by a majority. It considers how a decision-making power must be exercised, and the extent to which fetters such as good faith, rationality and natural justice will impact on the decision-making process. Lastly, it considers what the consequences of an unlawful decision are.

Access to the complete content on Law Trove requires a subscription or purchase. Public users are able to search the site and view the abstracts and keywords for each book and chapter without a subscription.

Please subscribe or login to access full text content.

If you have purchased a print title that contains an access code, please see the information provided with the code or instructions.
15. Decision-Making