13. Skills for Success in Coursework Assessments

The Concentrate Questions and Answers series offers the best preparation for tackling exam questions. Each book includes typical questions, bullet-pointed answer plans, suggested answers, and author commentary. This chapter gives advice on skills for success in coursework assessments: how to write well, how to plan coursework assignments, how to take notes, how to research and use the databases, how to reference in footnotes and bibliographies, which will all allow you to make your argument as forcibly as you can. As an example of an approach it presents an analysis of a challenging question on the Commons Act 2006, referring to recent cases.

Access to the complete content on Law Trove requires a subscription or purchase. Public users are able to search the site and view the abstracts and keywords for each book and chapter without a subscription.

Please subscribe or login to access full text content.

If you have purchased a print title that contains an access code, please see the information provided with the code or instructions printed within the title for information about how to register your code.

For questions on access or troubleshooting, please check our FAQs, and if you can't find the answer there, please contact us.