6. Preparing for and Implementing Exchange of Contracts

This chapter first considers matters that must be attended to before an exchange of contracts when acting for the buyer and when acting for the seller. It then discusses implementing the exchange of contracts; actions taken after exchange; and death or insolvency of contracting parties between exchange and completion.

Access to the complete content on Law Trove requires a subscription or purchase. Public users are able to search the site and view the abstracts and keywords for each book and chapter without a subscription.

Please subscribe or login to access full text content.
6. Preparing for and Implementing Exchange of Contracts

If you have purchased a print title that contains an access code, please see the information provided with the code or instructions printed within the title for information about how to register your code.

For questions on access or troubleshooting, please check our FAQs, and if you can't find the answer there, please contact us.